Inclusive Session

Tullamore TradFest invites you to come and join us for our inclusive session on Saturday the 13th April from 3 - 4pm in Tullamore Library. This event is running as part of the weekend of festivities but is aimed specifically at children and adults with additional needs and their families. This session will be led by Ciana McGarrigle and friends. Ciana is a clinical music therapist with experience of working with those with additional needs and their families. The aim of the event is to make music and more importantly TradFest accessible to those with additional needs. Come along and join us for a tune or sing a song. Share in our music making and help us make it a weekend of special events.

Welcome to Tullamore TradFest 2025!

A chairde

Here we go again! Festival number 5! We hope you're ready for an action packed weekend!

We are truly excited to bring you this year's festival offering which once again sees a multitude of events on offer, catering for all levels and interests. From intimate concerts featuring legends of the tradition, like Mike, Dezi & Tim or, emerging shining stars like Tyrone's McKenna family, high octane late night revelling with Pólca 4 or battering the floor with the Abbey Trio Céilí Band, we got you covered this weekend!

The same goes for this year's session trail. The variety is mighty! Locals and not so locals, Sligo and Leitrim reels with Ryan Sheridan, Conor McDonagh and gang, the glens of Antrim collide with Clare's Cliff of Moher in Tullamore with the Walls sisters catching up with Ciara Tighe, CHUNKY tunes with Fermanagh's Gary Curley & Stephen McKee and of course a few polkas and slides with Greta Curtin and Jessie Healy!

Similarly we see all our favourite workshops back again but also including the addition of a Polka/Slide workshop. Following on from the great success of our Inclusive Session last year, we are very grateful to have our good friend and music therapist, Ciana McGarrigle, back catering for even more of those within our community who might not typically get to enjoy traditional music, song and dance in an easily accessible manner.

And what can we say about this year's HUP! Offaly Hall of Fame recipient. We took an executive decision last November at a committee meeting in Paddy's absence that we all felt it was the right time to celebrate someone that has given so much, so generously, to us all over the years.

A big thank you also to our generous funders and supporters. Bord na Móna, The Ashling Murphy Fund, Arts Council, Credit Union, Tullamore Vintners and Offaly Co Council are all back again and we are delighted to see the ranks grow here with LOETB & Egan's Whiskey coming on board. Special mention also to ARD Software who have supported us with our new website and ticketing platform making www.tullamoretradfest.com a one stop shop for all your TTF online needs.

It is also great to see the huge number of visitors coming to Tullamore, not just from around Ireland but London, Manchester, Portsmouth, Essex, Strasbourg, Magdeburg, Jersey, Boston, New York and British Columbia!

Finally, a big thank you to the TTF Committee who put in countless hours all year round ensuring the festival is the magnificent success that it is. We are actually already well into planning for TTF 2026! So to Ann Marie, Ciara, Claire, Denise, Sinéad, Brian, Damien, James, Paddy and Michael – THANK YOU!

See you all over the weekend!

Tommy

HUP! Offaly

The 2025 Tullamore Tradfest Hall of Fame inductee is Paddy Buckley. Well known far and wide, Paddy comes from Ballyboy, outside Kilcormac, Co Offaly. Paddy began his musical studies under Michael Moore, who trained many local musicians in the 60s, 70's and 80's. From the early age of 15, Paddy was performing on stage in the local dance halls and fairs.

He played on the folk and trad scene all his life, with numerous bands of high renown. He travelled Ireland, England and Europe with Na Síog, a band he formed with his brother Tom and other local musicians.

Paddy has worked with Comhaltas and encouraged their activities most of his life, being a member of Kilcormac CCÉ for many years. He was a driving force in the success of four Leinster Fleadhs and two Offaly Fleadhs hosted in Kilcormac. In 2000, he headed the committee that launched a new Comhaltas Branch in Ballyboy, which has grown to from strength to strength.

Paddy was also very influential in the success of the 5 Busking festivals held in Kilcormac in the 90s. Furthermore, he was chief organizer of the 3 "Dancing with Lunasa" Festivals at Kinnitty Castle Hotel. He anchored the Friday night session in Kinnitty Castle for 12 years from 1996 to 2008 with the Kinsella's and Sean Ryan, a session to where most of Irelands most renowned musicians were regular attendees.

Being a massive lover of festivals, he has travelled the country to folk and trad festivals nationwide, meeting and playing with musicians from all over the world. He attended the first Wille Clancy Festival in Miltown Malbay, County Clare, and still attends to this day. He uses these friendships to encourage bands and musicians to come to the midlands and give local musicians an opportunity to meet and play with them. Paddy has encouraged and developed the tradition of music, song and dance in Offaly all his life and we are hope he will continue to do so for many more years.

Congratulations Paddy!
